Homeopathic Mospital. The Homeopathic Hospital was start ed in small quarters in 1903 by a few homeopathic physicians. In May, 1904, the present building at 133 Littleton avenue, Newark, was purchased and remodeled into a convenient and comfortable hospital for medical and surgical work. This is the first homeopathic hospital setablished in Essex county, and was opened because the general hospitals do not admit homeopathic physicians to their staff. The hospital now has accommodations for 26 patients, 11 in the private rooms and 15 in the three wards. During the summer of 1905 the property at 141 South Sixth street was rented and furnished as a nurses home. The building accommodates fifteen persons and greatly relieves the crowded condition of the hospital building. Lecture on Franklin.
